COMING SOON :

THE GENEROSITY PROJECT

The Generosity Team is excited to announce a new opportunity for our congregation: The Generosity Project. The Generosity Project is an expression of the ELCA churchwide initiative to grow faithful stewards and generous leaders, so all may grow in their capacity to recognize and respond to God's abundant grace and generosity – in congregations and at home. The goals of the project are to connect people ages 2 to 102, equip all ages and households for the faith practice of generosity, and to grow in God's grace generation to generation. Hope's Generosity Team looks forward to bringing this initiative to Hope beginning October 2nd.

The Generosity Project will be presented in 6 sessions, and the committee will offer an in-person option and a virtual option.

In-person Sessions will take place after worship, with lunch provided, on the following Sundays: 10/2, 10/30, 12/4, 1/8, 2/5, 3/5.

Virtual Sessions will take place via zoom on the following Wednesday evenings at 7pm: 10/12, 11/9, 12/14, 1/11, 2/8, (final session TBA).

Sign up to participate in the narthex or online at hopeonbluerock.org/generosity We hope to see EVERYONE there! Pastor Christie

PR. CHRISTIE'S CORNER

"Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink,^[a] or about your body, what you will wear." – Matthew 6:25

Two of the most common phrases in the Bible are "do not be afraid," and "do not worry." It seems that God, Jesus, angels, and many other Biblical characters were often trying to calm everyone, to alleviate fears and worries. This is not terribly surprising, given that the original hearers of this word were humans just like us. I imagine that if we all listened for the voice of God in our lives right now at this very moment, one of the things God would say to us is "Do not worry," or "Do not be afraid."

Our fears and worries might include questions such as: How can I survive this illness? How can I survive through the grief and pain I am experiencing? How can I best care for my loved ones? Do I have enough time, enough money, enough patience, knowledge, energy, or physical well-being to get through my current season of life?

I am sure you have many other questions, concerns, worries, anxieties, and fears during this time that you are experiencing in life right now. I know I have experienced all of these and more.

When I am in a moment (or week or month or year) of anxiety, one of the phrases I try to tell myself is: "This too shall pass." I encourage myself to breathe. And to "just be." Sometimes by looking around at the changing of the seasons, at nature, at the abundant gifts and blessings God has given us, we can reset our mindsets. We can break out of our fears and anxieties, and enter into the peace and comfort of God.

As we enter now into the season of fall, I want to share the poem below with you, "I Go Among Trees" by Wendell Berry:

I go among trees and sit still.
All my stirring becomes quiet
around me like circles on water.
My tasks lie in their places
where I left them, asleep like cattle.
Then what is afraid of me comes and lives a while in my sight.
What it fears in me leaves me,
and the fear of me leaves it.
It sings, and I hear its song.
Then what I am afraid of comes.
I live for a while in its sight.
What I fear in it leaves it,
and the fear of it leaves me.
It sings, and I hear its song.
After days of labor,
mute in my consternations,
I hear my song at last,
and I sing it. As we sing,
the day turns, the trees move.
+ <https://www.saltproject.org/progressive-christian-blog/2022/9/20/i-go-among-trees-by-wendell-berry>

I invite you to take some time this autumn to read and re-read this poem, to watch the leaves change and fall, and to consider the majesty and beauty of God's creation all around you. As you do so, may Christ's peace surround you, alleviating all fears and worries, giving you the comfort of resting in our Savior's loving arms.

In Christ's Peace, Pastor Christie

Preparing for Advent

Join Us In a

Devotion of Hope

Advent is a time of preparation for the light of Christ. It is a time that guides us to explore what Christmas means to us personally, and to discover the greatest gift we can give to our family, friends, and the world.

This year, the members of Hope will be asked to contribute our thoughts about the meaning of Advent. We will compile an "Devotions of Hope", that will be available for everyone to enjoy during the season. This is how it will work.

Twenty-eight Bible verses, centered around the foretelling of Christmas will be provided. Choose a reading, and write a short reflection, a prayer, or perhaps words to a hymn, a poem, or a picture that reveals your own interpretation of the verse. It doesn't have to be long or complex, just heartfelt. People of ALL ages are encouraged to participate! You will be able to sign up at church or on the church website at hopeonbluerock.org. Submit your devotion electronically to kschweinfest@gmail.com, or bring a hand-written copy to church. The due date is Sunday, November 13th. What a perfect gift to give to your family, friends, and the world.

-Karen Schweinfest, Worship and Music

TAKING AWE BREAKS

Many of us are juggling so many things that we are run by our lives rather than living them as gifts from God. What if we could learn to stop for a moment many times a day? What if in those moments we could decide to notice the sheer miracle of being alive? We would then be taking awe breaks instead of coffee breaks.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HUMOR

A little boy was attending his first wedding. After the service, his cousin asked him, "How many women can a man marry?" "Sixteen," the boy responded. His cousin was amazed that he had an answer so quickly. "How do you know that?" "Easy," the little boy said. "All you have to do is add it up, like the Bishop said: 4 better, 4 worse, 4 richer, 4 poorer."
