AMAZING GRACE

AMAZING GRACE for LENT

This year commemorates the 250th anniversary of the hymn "Amazing Grace." To celebrate, our theme for Lent will be "Amazing Grace." Each week during Sunday worship, we will explore the themes of just how amazing God's grace truly is, through scripture, sermon, and song. Our Thursday worship and Bible Study will explore this theme each week, and a daily devotional is available in the Narthex for everyone to take home.

Liturgical Worship

Christian liturgy is a pattern for worship used by a congregation or denomination on a regular basis. The term liturgy comes from Greek and means "public work." The Lutheran church is steeped in a liturgical tradition, utilizing responses from the hymnal, that are sung or spoken. During our Lenten journey, which focuses on repentance and forgiveness, our service order will follow a liturgical pattern that will be used every week, until Easter, when the word "alleluia" returns.
