7, immediately following worship service. Some of the topics to be discussed are "Why Jesus?" "Why Church?" "Why this church?" "Baptism",
"Communion", "Hope's Mission & Values."

Liturgical worship

Christian liturgy is a pattern for worship used by a congregation or denomination on a regular basis.
The term liturgy comes from Greek and means "public work." The Lutheran church is steeped in a liturgical tradition, utilizing responses from the hymnal, that are sung or spoken.
Our worship service order will continue to follow a liturgical pattern that will be used every week until Pentecost."
