Being Fruitful

Be fruitful and multiply – Gen. 1:28

This time of year is a good time to think about being fruitful. Plants are growing and blooming, and quite soon our favorite fruits will begin to ripen on the vine. There is nothing quite like picking a fruit, or even a vegetable, directly out of the garden and being able to eat it right away.

In the lectionary texts for Sunday June 4, Genesis 1 takes a prominent role. We get to experience the whole creation story again, remembering how “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth” (v. 1). It’s a beautiful story of how God lovingly created the earth, the sky, the waters, and all the creatures on the earth, including humans.

After God has created humans in God’s image, God tells all of the creatures to be fruitful and multiply. Historically, this has sometimes been interpreted to encourage us to have children, and that certainly made sense for “in the beginning” when there were only a few of each creature on the earth. But in our context today, I wonder if we can look at being fruitful in a slightly different way.

There are many ways to bear fruit for God. Perhaps being fruitful and multiplying can be to share our faith or share the love of Christ with others, bearing fruit by helping to bring others closer to God. In Galatians, Paul talks about the “fruit of the spirit,” which he describes as “love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control” (5:22). These behaviors are all ways that we can be fruitful for Christ.

Another Biblical theme I always consider this time of year is that of death and resurrection. All the fruit fell to the ground last fall, their plants appearing dead all through the winter months. And now, in the spring, just after we have celebrated Christ’s resurrection on Easter, we see those plants beginning to grow again, from the very seeds that fell from lifeless plants several months ago.

Perhaps we find ourselves somewhere in that cycle of death and resurrection at various points in our lives. Sometimes we feel like those lifeless, leafless plants in the winter. Sometimes we’re the seeds that fell from the plants in the fall full of life and yet not quite ready to grow into a new plant. And other times, we are full of the life of Christ and ready to burst into bloom.

Wherever we each find ourselves as we head into the summer months, let’s think about being fruitful. Every time we see a flower in bloom, a fruit just about to ripen, or a newly picked vegetable – let’s say a little prayer. Let’s ask God, “How can I be more fruitful in my life, right now, for YOU, God?” We may find ourselves blossoming with the fruits of the spirit in ways that we never expected.

May God bless you this summer and always,

Pastor Christie

I appreciate the help of Jake Byrne carrying up a white pillar and two palm tree holders to the attic.

Thank you to Karen Schweinfest taking the time to make more communion bread. Ruth Oehler

Thank you to all my Hope family and friends!

Everyone in this congregation is so wonderful and thoughtful: from cards, to phone calls, flowers, visits at both the hospital and rehab center and lots of treats from soup, cookies and a full dinner!! I would also like to thank Pastor for the calls, visits and loving prayers. I want everyone to know that I appreciate your loving prayers and I know that God is Good and I know I wouldn't have made it without your prayers and God's love.

Sending Love and prayers to all of you,
Mary Beth Taylor

Once again we are grateful to Judy Royse, our "flower fairy," who has planted our entrance containers with lovely spring pansies.

And Thank you to our "water lady," Bea Zimmer, who keeps them growing and living.

Our appreciation to Ray Davis, who has been busy digging up dead shrubs and spraying weeds around the church. He has the back pain to prove it!

For those who were able to attend the Prayer Chain Brunch, we were so grateful for Carmen Hasdorff's preparation of the prayer information and the prayer quotes distributed. And thank you to the Spiritual Life Committee for the yummy brunch treats!

Thank you to the Outreach Committee for a delightful and informative luncheon on May 7th for those who wished to learn more about Hope's missions and activities. If visitors or new members that could not attend would like to learn more about our church, please contact Becky Lister or Linda McBride.

CONGRATS TO HOPE'S RUNNERS!!

Our Sara Beagle, mother of 4, ran the 5k, 10k, and the half marathon (called the Skyline 3-Way) during the Flying Pig Marathon weekend on May 6 and 7th. Here she is halfway through the marathon. What an accomplishment!
Way to go, Sara!!

Here is Debbie Schrader, our council secretary, who walked the half marathon in Yosemite National Park on May 6th.

Where does she get her energy? Good job, Debbie!!

Notice the new soap dispenser in the Family Restroom? Thank Chuck Hasdorff!

Mother Nature's lightning destroyed a tree near our church's playground and parts of it landed on the playground fence.

How majestic is the force that blasted this tree into many pieces!!

It was decided to purchase from Compassion, an international organization, a water Bundle System that includes a well, water filter and training to provide safe water for a community in need.

Also the group will gather for a pool party at Debbie Schrader's in July or August and provide lunch for Little Brother's of the Elderly at Parky's Farm in Winton Woods on September 7.

They also discussed possible fundraisers for Bud Bunko Party or Bingo Night to allow them to add to their list of helpful projects to come.

JUST AS LITTLE HUMOR

- The wedding was so beautiful, even the cake was in tiers.
- Did you hear about the two spiders who got engaged? They met on the web.
- Two cell phones got married. The reception was terrific!
- Why did the King of Hearts and the Queen of Hearts get married? They were perfectly suited.

HUMOROUS CHRISTIAN STORY

An elderly woman walked into the local country church. The friendly usher greeted her at the door and helped her up the flight of steps.

"Where would you like to sit?" he asked politely. "The front row please." she answered. "You really don't want to do that", the usher said, "The pastor is really boring." "Do you happen to know who I am?" the woman inquired. "No." he said. "I'm the pastor's mother," she replied indignantly. "Do you know who I am?" he asked. "No." she said. "Good," he answered.
